
Statistical results for an abbreviated report for the JLI Accord Menthol study (EHC JLI / 03/02)

- 1) Descriptive statistics or frequency tables for demographic variables and baseline characteristics by treatment and study day
- 2) Disposition of subjects
- 3) Descriptive statistics (n, mean, median, range, SD) for COHb, nicotine equivalents, total NNAL and Ames Test by treatment and study day based on : a) original measurement , b) % change from baseline 2) % change from baseline adjusted for number of cigarettes smoked per day, c), and d) original measurement adjusted for number of cigarettes smoked per day.
- 4) Descriptive statistics (n, mean, median, range, SD, 10% percentile, 90% percentile) for smoking topography variables (number of puffs, puff volume, puff duration, inter-puff interval and peak flow) by treatment and study day.
- 5) Frequency tables for Smoking History Questionnaire and ACCORD Product Assessment Questionnaires by treatment and study day. Mean score will be summarized descriptively if appropriate.
- 6) Safety information will include overall no. of AEs and no. of subjects with AEs.

The above results will be provided with full data sets and data sets excluding subjects with COHb less than 1.5 at baseline, respectively.

The abbreviated report will also include all subject data listings.